DO NO.V-99011/99/2013/D (HAL-I)/1185-F/RM/14 22 March, 2014

Dear Shri Rajeev Chandrasekhar,

This has reference to your letter dated 17th September, 2013 regarding alleged irregularities and breach of procedure over issuance of NOC by HAL to a private builder near the HAL Airport in Bangalore.

The matter has been examined. In this connection, it is stated that HAL has reviewed the case where NOC were given and necessary action has been taken in the cases where discrepancies were found.

HAL has revamped the entire process of issuing NOCs to address the possibility of submission of erroneous location and elevation data by the applicants and brought in various measures to mitigate the same. In order to bring in transparency, HAL has revised the procedure for issuance of NOC and put it on its website.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(A.K. Antony)
