Dear Shri Sharma

Thank you for our meeting on 06 January, 2016 at your office. I was pleased that we could share our views about the need for better and more transparent regulation and policy making for the sector, to stimulate growth and enshrine consumer rights.

As you are aware, I have been evangelizing the technology sector, and in particular, Digital India, for a considerable amount of time, and therefore, I am sharing with you a brief note with relevant excerpts of my letters and articles on the following :

1. Need for a Legislation on Net Neutrality, and inclusion of rules in the licensing conditions for Telecom Operators
2. Strengthening Independent Regulation by suitable amendments to the TRAI Act and increasing Capacity in both TRAI and DoT/MoCIT.

I look forward to a positive, constructive engagement with you so that the ICT sector can grow in a consistent manner bringing all of the innovations that this sector represents, to the Indian consumers.

Sincerely,

RAJEEV CHANDRASEKHAR
